Mother-Daughter Banquet Planned

"The Life Of A Christian Woman" is the theme chosen for the Mother-Daughter Banquet to be held at 6:30 p.m. Friday evening, in the Educational Building of First Lutheran Church, Carson and Flower.

This banquet is being held not only to commemorate Mother's Day, but also as a means of giving all of the women of First Lutheran an opportunity to help support our adopted son Chippela George. Chippela lives in India and is attending the Lutheran mission school there to train for the ministry. The offering taken at the banquet will be used to pay for his schooling for a year.

The young men of the Senior Luther League and as the men of the Brotherhood will serve the banquet to the ladies. All ladies of the church from the very young to the very old are invited to come together to enjoy this evening of fellowship.

SECOND ANNUAL Mother-Daughter banquet at First Methodist Church is discussed by Mrs. Robert Goodale, Mrs. Ray Raible, Mrs. Frank Hallowpeter, and Mrs. Edward Laughney.

El Nido District Plans Bazaar

Stuffed toys, toaster covers, crocheted dollies, clown bean bags, clothespin planters, sequined book markers and unusual aprons are taking shape in the El Nido District.

Girl Scout Troop 1383 and Boy Scout Troops 967 and 967-C and their parents are combining to make unusual items for the PTA bazaar May 8 at the school, 4402 Redondo Beach Blvd. The hours will be from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m.

Luncheon will be served from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. and will feature hot dogs, Spanish rice, corn chips, cupcakes, punch, coffee and popcorn.

Freshly baked pies and layer cakes will be available at the baked goods booth.

Floral Arrangements Studied by Club

Mrs. Albert Yackie, president, entertained the Beau Jardin Garden Club at her home Wednesday, April 23.

A carnation corsage welcomed Mrs. Ben Holden as a new member of the club. Mrs. Lindsay Archibald, another new member, was unable to attend.

Floral arrangements made up the evening's program. Mrs. Kenneth Moe, program chairman, demonstrated line arrangements; Mrs. James Stadler, a table and buffet arrangement; Mrs. Kenneth Harmon, floral with rock; and Mrs. John Carrievau, miniature accompanied by a whimsical verse. Mrs. John Beattie gave a discourse on Honey-suckle and its use as a ground cover, and each member was presented with a honeysuckle plant.

Juniors Meet

Busy Bees, the Junior Garden Club affiliated with Beau Jardin Garden Club had their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Moe, Saturday, April 26.

The following members were present: Mmes. John Beattie, John Carrievau, Lee Chase, Donald Drorbaugh, Kenneth Harmon, Robert Hill, Ben Holden, Kenneth Moe, James Stadler, Fred Fergul, and Albert Yackie.

Parachutist Home from Award Trip

Mrs. Cordie White, 74, of 2117 Torrance Blvd., and her daughter, Faye Hund of Huntington Park, returned last weekend from a two week stay in Honolulu.

The trip was an award to Mrs. White from the Hank Weaver TV show, program of March 24, as the result of a letter and resulting interview.

Mrs. Whites life was judged to be "the most interesting" for an interview because of her occupation as a parachute jumper from hot air balloons nearly 60 years ago.

She started at 17 with the Frank Coleman Balloon outfit and continued jumping for them for 7 years. They performed mostly at county and state fairs and as advertising stunts.

Mrs. White is a member of the Torrance Women of the Moose and the Torrance Royal Neighbor lodge.

HAPPY VACATIONERS are Mrs. Gordie White of Torrance and her daughter Mrs. Faye Hund, Huntington Park, returning from two weeks visit in Honolulu.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Friday

The Questers Sunday School class of the First Methodist church will sponsor their second annual Mother-Daughter banquet May 9 in the Fellowship hall of the church.

An interesting program will be highlighted by a Hat Contest. Original creations will be modeled and judged in categories of the simplest and the most fashionable.

All friends of the Church are invited to attend the banquet and reservations may be made by calling Mr. Frank Fisher, airfax 8-4751.

Mrs. Emil Settlage is General Chairman of the event with the following Co-Chairmen: Mrs. Frank Hallowpeter, Decorations; Mrs. Lyle Enger, Program; Mrs. Harlan McCool, Food; Mr. Frank Fisher, Reservations; Mr. Ralph King, Waiters; and Mrs. Clifton Duncan, Publicity.

Hospital Chapter to Observe Mother's Day

Mother's Day will be observed by the Anna Grancell Heart and Cancer Chapter of Mount Sinai Hospital with a gay program May 8 at 8:30 p.m. in the Menorah Synagogue Center, 112 1/2 South Catalina, Redondo Beach.

Festivities will follow a short business session, presided over by president Mrs. Charles Davis.

Mrs. Dorothy Cole will present a tribute to "mothers everywhere"; Cantor Harry Newman and his wife Fay will entertain with vocal selections.

Souvenirs will be given to all the guests.

In charge of arrangements headed by chairman Mrs. Dorothy Cole are Mmes. Gladys Sloan, Selma Steinberg, Ada Yettra and Libby Schakne.

The public is welcome to attend. There will be no admission charge.

The Chapter represents non-profit, non-sectarian Mount Sinai Hospital and Clinic in the Bay Areas.
